ChaseHealthAdvance Revolving Account Agreement

1. AGREEMENT ACCEPTANCE AND AMENDMENTS:

Acceptance: This revolving credit account agreement (the "Agreement") governs your ChaseHealthAdvance open-end, revolving account ("Account") and its terms include those stated in the table titled Pricing Information/Rates and Fees Table," and any other terms set forth in any promotional disclosures signed by you or anyone you authorize to use the Account ("Authorized User"). The words "we," "us" and "our" mean Chase Bank USA, N.A., which is the lender for your Account. The words "you," "your," and "yours" mean everyone responsible for this Account. This Agreement is binding if you use or make a payment on your Account, and you promise to pay for all transactions charged to your Account.

Amendments: We have the right to change the terms of this Agreement for any reason, and in any respect, by adding, deleting or modifying any provision, including but not limited to APRs, fees, the Minimum Payment and other terms. In certain circumstances, we are required by law to notify you of changes to the terms of this Agreement, and in other circumstances we may not be required to do so. When required by law to advise you that you have a legal right to reject any changes we make, we will provide an explanation about how to do that. In some circumstances, APRs or other aspects of your Account may change even though other terms of the Account do not change, for example when the Penalty APR becomes applicable. See the Penalty APR section about our right to increase APRs on outstanding balances and/or future transactions.

2. AUTHORIZATION TO PAY MERCHANT DIRECTLY: You authorize us to pay participating merchants directly for your purchases, including but not limited to procedures, services and supplies, and goods. We have no responsibility for failure of any merchant or any other party to honor your Account.

3. AUTHORIZED USERS: This Account may appear on an Authorized User's credit report. You are responsible for all use of your Account including all interest charges and fees added to your Account that result from use by an Authorized User. You acknowledge that only members of your household may be Authorized Users on your Account, and you represent that any Authorized User listed by you on the Application or on any separate Authorized User form is a member of your household. If you choose to remove an Authorized User, it is your responsibility to notify us in writing (ChaseHealthAdvance, AZ1-5733, P.O. BOX 71, Phoenix, AZ 85001-0071), and until we have received your written notification and have a reasonable time to update your Account, you will be responsible for all use of your Account including all interest charges and fees added to your Account that result from an Authorized User's use. If you do remove an Authorized User, we may close the Account and issue you a new Account number.

4. PROMISE TO PAY: When you use your Account, you represent to us that you have the intention and ability to pay, and you promise to pay us for all transactions, as well as any interest charges and fees that may be due. Except to the extent required by law, we have no responsibility for failure, quality or inadequacy of any procedures, services, supplies, and other goods provided by a doctor or a merchant or any procedure wrongfully done, and you agree to hold us harmless from any such liability or responsibility.

5. CREDIT LINE: We also call this a credit limit. We will assign a credit line to your Account. Your billing statement will show the amount of your credit line as of the date of the statement. You promise not to allow your outstanding balance to exceed your credit line. We may change or cancel your credit line. If we do, it will not excuse you from your obligations to pay us. We may restrict the extent to which your credit line can be used for different types of purchases such as by limiting the dollar amount or number of or time period available for any such purchases, and we may completely prohibit use of your credit line for particular types of purchases.

6. BILLING CYCLES/STATEMENTS: Your Account will have time periods called "billing cycles" or "billing periods." Each billing cycle is about one month in length. We will provide a billing statement each month one is required by applicable law.

7. TYPES OF TRANSACTIONS AND AUTHORIZATIONS

Purchases: You may use your card to pay for goods or services at provider locations that accept the Account.

PROMOTIONS: Special offers ("Promotion(s)") may be available to you when you use your Account to make certain purchases. ("Promotional Purchase(s)"). All Promotions are subject to the terms of this Agreement. Specific terms regarding your Promotion will be stated in disclosures we provide to you. Read your disclosures carefully. If you default on the terms of your Account, all Promotions you were offered and accepted will end and you will be subject to the applicable terms stated in your disclosures for each Promotion. Promotions may include, for example:

No Interest Promotion (with Payments). If you are offered and accept this type of promotional financing, which may be marketed as "no interest" financing, periodic interest will be charged to your Account from the purchase date at the APR for Purchases if: (1) the balance of your Promotional Purchase is not paid in full within the promotional period disclosed on the purchase receipt or other disclosure document provided to you at the time of the purchase or (2) we do not receive any Minimum Payment within 60 days of the date and time due. The monthly payment due for your Promotional Purchase will be either a specific fixed payment amount disclosed to you at the time of the purchase or an amount determined using the Minimum Payment calculation disclosed to you at the time of purchase. Making only your Minimum Payment each month may not pay off your Promotional Purchase within the promotional period. We will generally allocate your payments as described in the Payment Crediting section of this Agreement; however, all payments made above your Minimum Payment during the last two billing cycles immediately preceding expiration of the promotional period will be allocated to your Promotional Purchase balance to allow you to pay it in full within the promotional period. Your statement will show you the amount of any periodic interest charges that have accrued and the Promotion expiration date. After the expiration date, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains and all accrued periodic interest charges will become part of your purchase balance and bear interest at the APR for Purchases, so long as the Penalty APR is not applicable. If we do not receive the Minimum Payment within 60 days of the date and time due, your promotional financing terms will end, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains and all accrued periodic interest charges will become part of your purchase balance, and the Penalty APR will be applicable to that remaining balance.

Fixed Payments. If you are offered and accept this type of promotional financing which may be marked as "Extended Pay," you will be required to pay for your Promotional Purchase by making a specific fixed payment each month in the estimated amount and for the number of months indicated on the purchase receipt or other disclosure document provided to you at the time of the purchase. Your actual specific fixed payment amount will be disclosed on your statement and will be part of your required Minimum Payment. The last payment due on your Promotional Purchase may vary in amount and will generally be smaller. Each specific fixed payment includes a portion of the periodic interest charges calculated at the promotional APR disclosed on the purchase receipt or other disclosure document. Your statement will show you the Promotion expiration date. After the expiration date, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains will become part of your purchase balance and bear interest at the APR for Purchases, so long as the Penalty APR is not applicable. If we do not receive the Minimum Payment within 60 days of the date and time due, your promotional financing terms will end, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains will become part of your purchase balance, and the Penalty APR will be applicable to that remaining balance.

Qualified Promotional Transaction (with Required Payments): If you are offered and accept this type of promotional financing, your Promotional Purchase will not accrue periodic interest charges during the promotional period disclosed to you on the purchase receipt or other disclosure document provided to you at the time of the purchase. The monthly payment due for your Promotional Purchase will be either a specific fixed payment amount disclosed to you at the time of the purchase or an amount determined using the Minimum Payment calculation stated in this Agreement. Your statement will show you the Promotion expiration date. After the expiration date, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains will become part of your purchase balance and bear interest at the APR for Purchases, so long as the Penalty APR is not applicable. If we do not receive the Minimum Payment within 60 days of the date and time due, your promotional financing terms will end, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains will become part of your purchase balance, and the Penalty APR will be applicable to that remaining balance.

REDUCED APR: If you are offered and accept this type of Promotion, an APR lower than the APR for purchases will be applied to the Promotional Purchase balance until the end of the promotional period as disclosed to you on the purchase receipt or other disclosure document provided to you at the time of the purchase. If we do not receive the Minimum Payment within 60 days of the date and time due, your promotional financing terms will end, any Promotional Purchase balance that remains will become part of your purchase balance, and the Penalty APR will be applicable to that remaining balance.

8. PAYMENTS:

MINIMUM PAYMENTS: You must make a monthly minimum payment ("Minimum Payment") in a way that we receive it by the date and time it is due. You may make payments greater than your required Minimum Payment. This may reduce the interest charges that are added to your Account. The Minimum Payment each month is the sum of the following:

7.00 % of the balance resulting from your non-Promotional Purchases

plus

The minimum monthly payment(s) due on balance(s) resulting from Promotional Purchase(s). The minimum monthly payment with respect to each Promotional Purchase will range from 1% to 17% of that Promotional Purchase balance. An estimated minimum monthly payment for each Promotional Purchase will be provided to you on your Disclosures along with the minimum monthly payment factor used to calculate that amount based on the amount you financed.

Any fees assessed in the current billing cycle, and any unpaid Minimum Payment from prior billing cycles. Your Minimum Payment will never be less than $25 or the exact amount of your Account Balance, whichever is less.

PAYMENT CREDITING: We will apply payments equal to or less than the required Minimum Payment amount and any credits to balances on your Account in any way we choose. Generally, and except as required by law, we will credit payments over the required Minimum Payment to balances with the highest APR first. We will then credit payments to lower rate balances in descending order of APRs. The manner in which we apply any payment to your Account balances may affect the amount of any payment applied to introductory or promotional financing balances.

CREDIT BALANCES: You may request a refund of credit balances at any time. If you do not request a refund, we will apply credit balances to new transactions unless a refund is required by law.

PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS: You agree to pay us amounts you owe in U.S. dollars. You must use a check, money order or electronic debit drawn on a US bank or a foreign bank branch in the U.S. We will not accept cash payments through the mail. For mailed payments, your billing statement and the envelope it comes in gives you instructions about how, when and where to make your payments. You must follow these instructions. Your payment will not be credited to your Account before we receive it at the address we specify for receipt of payments and in accordance with the payment instructions. If you make a payment marked as paid in full or indicate that it is to pay all amounts you owe us, you must send that payment to the special address on the back of your statement. That address is called the "Conditional Payments" address. We may accept a Conditional Payment and not agree that it pays all amounts you owe on your Account. Also, we may return a Conditional Payment to you and you will still owe us the amount of the payment or any other amounts owed on your Account. You authorize us to collect any payment check either electronically or by draft. We can collect your payment checks electronically by sending the check number, check amount, account and routing numbers to your bank. Or we can collect these checks by sending a draft drawn on your bank account. Each time you send us a check, you authorize a one-time electronic funds transfer. Funds may be taken from your bank account on the same day we receive your payment. We will not keep your original check, just a copy of it. For more information or to stop the conversion of your checks into electronic funds transfer, call us at the phone number listed on the front of your monthly statement. You may also write to us at ChaseHealthAdvance, AZ1-5733, P.O. BOX 71, Phoenix, AZ 85001-0071. You may use our optional telephone service or our customer service advisors to make a payment. We will provide the terms for these payment services before you use them. If we accept payment for an amount in excess of your current balance, your available credit line will not be increased by the amount of such overpayment, nor shall we be required to authorize purchases for an amount in excess of your assigned credit line.

9. Paying Interest: Except as otherwise described in Paragraph 7, interest charges will be imposed on transactions beginning on the date the transaction is posted to your Account and will continue up to the date when your Account is paid in full. Your due date will be a minimum of 21 days following the close of each billing cycle.

10. PERIODIC INTEREST CHARGES: For each transaction on your Account, we will charge interest charges on the "daily balance" (including current transactions) using a daily periodic rate. We calculate the daily balance by taking the beginning balance on your Account each day (excluding unpaid interest charges and fees), adding any new transactions and other debits and subtracting principal payments and credits. We then multiply the daily balance by the "daily periodic rate." This gives us the "daily interest charge." The sum of the daily interest charge for each day in the cycle is the interest charge ("interest charge"). The daily periodic rate is equal to the annual percentage rate ("APR") divided by the number of days in the year. For non-Promotional Purchases the applicable APR is found in the Pricing Information/Rates and Fees Table and the daily periodic rate for those non-Promotional Purchases can be found directly under your Pricing Information/Rates and Fees Table. The APR and the daily periodic rate applicable to Promotional Purchases on your Account be reflected on the disclosures that we provide to you. Read your Pricing Information/Rates and Fees Table as well as the terms of any Promotion that you may be offered carefully. We will charge no less than the minimum interest charge as set forth in your Pricing Information/Rates and Fees Table if any periodic interest charge is due for a billing cycle, except where not allowed by law.

11. PENALTY FEES:

Late Payment Fee: We may charge a late payment fee of an amount found in your Fees table if we do not receive at least the required Minimum Payment for any billing cycle by the date and time it is due.

Return Payment Fee: A fee disclosed to you in your Fees table will be charged for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal or share draft issued in connection with any payment due under this Agreement.

12. CREDIT INVESTIGATION AND INFORMATION:

A. We may release information to others, such as credit reporting agencies, about our experience with your Account. We may review your credit history by obtaining information from credit reporting agencies and others. We may report information about you and your Account to credit reporting agencies.

If you request additional users on your Account, we may report Account information in your name as well as in the names of those other people. If you think we have reported information to a credit reporting agency that is not correct, you may write to us using the service address listed on your billing statement. Please include your name, address, Account number, telephone number and a brief description of the problem and a copy of the credit reporting agency report if you have it. We will investigate the matter. If our investigation shows that you are right, we will contact each credit reporting agency to which we reported the information and will request they correct the report. If we disagree with you after our investigation, we will notify you in writing or by telephone.

B. You hereby authorize the merchant to disclose and open for review or inspection to us the financial records maintained by the merchant with respect to any procedure performed and information provided to such merchant.

13. COMMUNICATIONS/CHANGE OF INFORMATION: We can provide billing statements and other communications to you at any mailing address or email address shown in our records. If you change your contact information such as any mailing address, telephone number or email address, you must notify us immediately in writing at the address shown on your billing statement. Telephone numbers you provide include those you give us and/ or those we obtain from caller ID processes. We may obtain telephone number, mailing address and e-mail address information from you or third parties, and we may accept mailing address corrections from the United States Postal Service. If more than one person is responsible for this Account, we can provide billing statements and communications to any of you. Notice to one of you will be considered notice to all of you. You all will remain obligated on the Account. You agree to pay any fee(s) or charge(s) for incoming communications from us, and/ or outgoing communications to us, without reimbursement from us. You authorize us, or anyone acting on our behalf, to call or send a text message to any number you provide or to any number where we reasonably believe we can contact you. These include calls to mobile, cellular, or similar devices, and calls using automatic telephone dialing systems and/ or prerecorded messages. We may also send an email to any address where we reasonably believe we can contact you. Some of the legal purposes for calls and messages include: suspected fraud or identity theft; obtaining information; transactions on or servicing of your Account; collecting on your Account; and providing you information about products and services.

14. TELEPHONE MONITORING AND RECORDING: We and our agents may listen to and record your telephone calls with us. You agree that we and our agents may do so, whether you or we initiate the telephone call.

15. DEFAULT: Your Account may be in default if any of the following applies: (i) we do not receive at least the Minimum Payment by the date and time it is due as shown on your billing statement; (ii) you become the subject of bankruptcy proceedings; (iii) an attachment or garnishment in a material amount is entered against you; (iv) you supply us with misleading, false or incorrect information. After default, your Account will continue to accrue interest charges. If your Account is in default, we may close it without notice and require you to pay your unpaid balance immediately. To the extent permitted by law, if you are in default because you have failed to pay us, you will pay our collection costs, attorneys' fees, court costs, and all other expenses of enforcing our rights under this Agreement. Further, if you were offered and accepted any Promotions, upon your default all Promotions will end and you will be subject to the applicable terms of each Promotion as stated in the disclosures for each Promotion.

16. PENALTY APR: We can impose a penalty APR, which is higher than the rate you would otherwise pay if you do not pay us the Minimum Payment within 60 (sixty) days of your payment due date. If we impose a penalty APR, it will apply indefinitely to future transactions. If we do not receive any minimum payment within 60 days of the date and time due, the penalty APR will apply to all outstanding balances, as well as to future transactions. However, in connection with a payment default of 60 or more days, the penalty APR will stop being applied to transactions that occurred prior to or within 14 days after we provided notice about the increase to the penalty APR if we receive six consecutive minimum payments when due beginning immediately after the increase to the penalty APR.

17. CLOSING/SUSPENDING YOUR ACCOUNT:

You may close your Account at any time. We may require you to provide a closure request in writing. Except as required by applicable law, we may close your Account or suspend your credit privileges or any feature on your Account at any time for any reason without notice, including Account inactivity, or for any of the following reasons:

• Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake. You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter: When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe. If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay.

If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

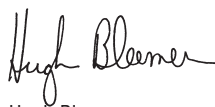

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Account Purchases:

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your Account, and have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

- 1) The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.
- 2) You must have used your Account for the purchase.
- 3) You must not yet have fully paid for your purchase.

If all of the above criteria are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at the Customer Service address or electronically at the website address shown on your billing statement. While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
